The Celebration of Worship at Faith Community Lutheran

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

All Saints

October 31 & November 1, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

The Old Order Has Passed Away

On this All Saints Weekend, we read about Lazarus’ death and resurrection in John Chapter 11. Jesus saw Mary weeping and was deeply moved and troubled. The word trouble here is the same word that is used when Jesus was troubled in the Garden of Gethsemane in John 12:27. It refers to a mental state of anxiety. Why would Jesus be so troubled when he was about to perform a miracle? After all, he purposely waited to come to them until Lazarus was not only dead, but had been buried for four days! One would have expected Him to be happy that Lazarus was going to live again. Why so troubled then?

Jump ahead a few pages to Chapter 12. Six days before the Passover, a dinner is given in Jesus’ honor. Lazarus reclines at the table as his sister Mary pours perfume on Jesus’ feet. Large crowds are gathering not only to see Jesus, but also to see Lazarus. As a result, “the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well, for on account of him many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and putting their faith in Him.” (12:10,11). Lazarus had died a natural death which brought much grief. Jesus brought him back to life and they celebrated. The chief priests planned his murder. How much more grief would be suffered than the first time? “Jesus wept” (11:35).

Not only did He weep, but He shed His blood for us. And for those who believe in Him, “He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” (Rev 21:4).
